Purchasers will be informed of the dates available to them for removal at the time of notification, these dates must be strictly adhered to unless alternative arrangements are made with the Auctioneers in advance. Purchasers should note that time is of the essence in this regard. Neither the vendor nor the Auctioneer will be held responsible for any lot(s) while on the premises. NB All purchasers are hereby notified that all removals shall be supervised by the auctioneers and/or vendors and that in regard to the method and timing of removals the auctioneers and/or vendors directions must be adhered to and shall be final and binding on all parties.
9. Any articles found in, on under or near any lot(s) and not mentioned in this document shall be reserved by the Auctioneer for the vendor and are not be considered as part of any lot(s).
10. The purchaser shall disconnect all supports, pipe-work, cabling, switchgear and other fittings and connections to any lot where marked or as indicated by the Auctioneers or their representatives. The purchaser shall be responsible for all damage that it, its carriers, servants or agents may do to the premises or the property of a third party. The Auctioneers may require the purchaser to deposit such sum of money with them by way of security for making good all such damage as may be likely to be occasioned by the removal of a lot or lots. Should a purchaser refuse to lodge such moneys the Auctioneer may refuse the purchaser access to the premises for the purpose of collecting all or any of the lot(s) as purchased and Condition 17 of these conditions of tender shall apply. No use shall be made of the roof structure or any other part of the premises for lifting or other purposes in connection with removal of any lot(s). Should the purchaser have any requirements in relation to the removal of any barrier to the removal of their goods they will be required to submit a detailed plan for the removal and reinstatement of any such barrier which must be approved by the vendor and the auctioneer, all purchasers are so advised to fully inspect the location of their purchases prior to bidding.
11. No liability will be accepted by the Landlord, Vendor or the Auctioneers for personal injuries of any description and from whatsoever causes arising, sustained by any person whilst on the premises for the purpose of inspection or during the sale or whilst removing any lot(s) from the premises in connection with the sale. Each purchaser shall be responsible for and will realise indemnify the vendor, its agents and servants from and against any liability whatever in relation to each lot or otherwise for, personal injury to any person (whether fatal or otherwise), Loss or damage to any property, and, any other loss, damage, actions, proceedings, costs, claims, demands, expenses or charges however arising, present or future (except where the same shall be proved to have been caused solely by the negligence of the vendor its servants or agents). The purchaser shall maintain full and adequate insurance in respect of the risks specified in these conditions including without limitation, and shall if requested by the Auctioneers furnish satisfactory evidence of such insurance. Regardless, it shall be assumed at all times by the Vendor and the Auctioneers that this insurance cover is in place.
12. Each purchaser shall at their own expense provide all vehicles, equipment and labour necessary for the safe and efficient removal of lots purchased by them. This also includes any such resources required for satisfactory re-instatement of the premises. If in any case it shall be necessary for the purchaser to use cutting or lifting equipment for the removal of any lot, the purchaser shall prior to the use of any such equipment furnish the Auctioneers with evidence of insurance cover in respect of all damage that may be caused to the premises or any lot as a result of the use of such equipment.
13. Children shall not be permitted to enter on the premises, whether alone or accompanied by an adult at any time. Any child that obtains access to the premises by any means shall be deemed to be there at their own risk (or adults risk if accompanied by an adult). Having regard to the nature of the premises Such children or their guardians or parents shall have no claims against the vendor its servant or agents the Auctioneers in respect of any personal injuries sustained (whether fatal or otherwise) however caused or incurred.

14. The vendor its servants or agents shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or injury occasioned to any purchaser, their servants or agents or to any other person or other property which may be caused by any defects, imperfections, malfunctions in any lot or lots. Likewise the vendor its servants and agents shall not be liable for any loss, damage or injury caused to any person by contamination or noxious substances whether on the premises of the vendor or contained within any lot purchased by the purchaser.
15. The vendor reserves the right to alter, divide, group or withdraw any lot or lots before or after the tender date. The vendor reserves the right to sell any lot or lots prior to tender. In the event of any item being withdrawn from sale the vendor their servants or agents shall not be liable for any costs or expenses incurred by the prospective purchaser. The vendor is not obliged to accept the highest or any bid for any lot or lots.
16. In the event of any dispute or difference arising concerning any lot or the interpretation of these conditions, the same shall be settled by the Auctioneers, whose decision shall be final and binding on all parties concerned.
17. If the purchaser shall make default in payment of their purchase money or neglect to comply fully with these conditions or any of them, all money paid by their servants or agents at the time of default or neglect shall be forfeited to the vendor. The vendor shall be at liberty to re-sell the lot or lots at such time and in a manner as they may deem proper without notice to the party or parties making default, either by public or private contract, and with any deficiency being payable immediately by the defaulting or negligent purchaser. In case of non-payment by the purchaser, any amount owing to the vendor shall be recoverable as and for liquidated damages. This condition shall not prejudice the right of the Vendor or the Auctioneers to enforce any contract made hereunder and the failure of the party whose tender(s) is accepted to pay in full within the time specified shall constitute a material breach of conditions entitling the vendor to terminate the contract or to sue the purchaser for specific performance, for damages or both. The vendor shall be entitled to interest on any balance of the purchase money remaining unpaid from the closing date, up to the date of actual completion at a rate of 20% per annum compounded on a calendar monthly basis.
18. Each Tender and any contract made hereunder shall in all respects be construed and executed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Ireland.
19. Nothing within these Conditions or in any agreement or matter connected with these conditions shall in any way affect the Estate, person or property of the Agents or Vendors.
20. In this catalogue and tender document quantities relating to any lot(s) are given in good faith for guidance purposes only and purchasers must confirm any such quantities or amounts for themselves before completing and signing their Tender.
